[1] Hidden spell. Requires fusion with another monster that also lacks a spell to unlock.

[2] <<< Level 1
Level 99 >>>

[3] Effective maximum ATK is double what it would otherwise be while the unit has this talent, capped at 255. If the unit loses this talent, maximum ATK reverts to the normal value.

[4] Effective maximum ATK is double what it would otherwise be while the unit has this talent, capped at 255. If the unit loses this talent, maximum ATK reverts to the normal value.

[5] Go up to next floor

[6] Eats an item and returns a different item. Only way to obtain some rare items.

[7] If this unit kills another unit, the EXP given by the killed monster is doubled.

[8] Caps at level 78

[9] Units with this talent are unaffected by the Poison status. If at least one collared familiar has this talent, Poison will not affect either collared familiar or Koh.

[10] Effective maximum DEF is double what it would otherwise be while the unit has this talent, capped at 255. If the unit loses this talent, maximum DEF reverts to the normal value.

[11] Effective spell levels are double what they would otherwise be. If the unit loses this talent, effective spell levels return to normal.

[12] Cures Anorexia

[13] All actions have the MP cost reduced to 50% (rounded up). For rounding purposes, the smallest possible unit of MP consumption is 1/256.

[14] Effective spell levels are double what they would otherwise be. If the unit loses this talent, effective spell levels return to normal.

[15] Enemy-controlled Garudas will not use their Abduct ability on units with this talent. If at least one collared familiar has this talent, enemy-controlled Garudas will not abduct either collared familiar. This talent has no official name.

[16] Puts enemy to sleep

[17] Units with this talent are unaffected by the Sleep status. If at least one collared familiar has this talent, Sleep will not affect either collared familiar or Koh.

[18] Units with this talent are unaffected by a Zu's Bark loudly ability. If at least one collared familiar has this talent, barks will not affect either collared familiar. This talent has no official name.

[19] Teleports target and garuda to random location

[20] Creates an ice rock

[21] Increased MP costs

[22] A ranged punch attack. Requires 1 round to charge up.

[23] Units with this talent are unaffected by a Picket's Steal ability. If at least one collared familiar has this talent, attempts at stealing will not affect either collared familiar or Koh. This talent has no official name.

[24] Units with this talent are unaffected by a Picket's Steal ability. If at least one collared familiar has this talent, attempts at stealing will not affect either collared familiar or Koh. This talent has no official name.

[25] When fusing monsters, this unit's type will not be the resulting unit type as if the other monster was holding a Leva fruit. In the event that both monsters in an attempted fusion have this talent or are holding Leva fruits, the fusion will not take place. This talent also prevents units from evolving, but it is not possible for a unit that evolves to obtain this talent without using glitches. This talent has no official name.

[26] Units with this talent are unaffected by a Zu's Bark loudly ability. If at least one collared familiar has this talent, barks will not affect either collared familiar. This talent has no official name.

[27] When fusing monsters, this unit's type will be the resulting unit type as if it was holding a Leva fruit. In the event that both monsters in an attempted fusion have this talent or are holding Leva fruits, the fusion will not take place. This talent also prevents units from evolving, but it is not possible for a unit that evolves to obtain this talent without using glitches.
